		Music: Driving Electronic Drama (background) Script: This is my Spotify homepage, which is going to be my most recently listened to albums and the daily mixes that Spotify creates for me and they are based on genre.	Music fades to hear script Add visual effect frame Highlight cursor

		On the left side you can see the homepage, the search bar and my library. Starting at the search bar, type in any song you wish (Fortnite) and it will populate the songs for that. It also gives you similar artists to the one you are searching for. You can also search general podcasts, audio books, and even live events. The new releases and current charts are the most popular.	Music fades to hear script Add visual effect frame Highlight cursor

		Script: You can also go to your library. My library has all of the playlists that I made and all of the albums I have saved. And they're sorted top to bottom according to the most recently used. You can sort by album, artist and audiobooks. You can also sort in	Music fades to hear script Add visual effect frame Highlight cursor

		the drop down menu by alphabetical order.
	Playlist		Music back to full volume Add visual effect
		Script: You can also create a playlist. This is my playlist in the middle, which is automatically titled. The title can be changed. For now, let's add something to the list. Add Stick Season by Noah Kahan. And now, let's add Down Bad by Taylor Swift. And click add. These are my two songs in my playlist. I can edit the playlist also by choosing the three bars and clicking on the choices available. You can edit details, move to a folder, and share the playlist. I will now edit the details. I'm going to give it a name. I'm going to add a description. I'm going to choose a photo by uploading a photo from the	Music fades to hear script Add visual effect frame Highlight cursor internet or my hard drive. You can also change the layout, which will show you the album and cover art.
